

Stewardship Month

Rev. Byron A. Jackson, Pastor

Proverbs 21:25-26

1. This section of proverbs _____ the theme of prosperity versus poverty.
2. According to Proverbs, the wise are, and will be, _____. The wicked or lazy are equated with being _____.
3. There is _____ something for us to do.
4. A lot depends on our _____.
5. The _____ of help us to be prepared, organized, clean, and _____.
6. This proverb speaks specifically to the ways of the _____.
7. The sluggard suffers from a mindset of _____, this constant _____ for things they do not have.
8. _____ people blow opportunities because their _____ are fixated on what they lack.
9. Sluggards are not satisfied because they are _____ to _____ for what they crave.
10. The sluggard's desire will _____ them. They eventually _____ of starvation.
11. Verse 26 adds that this kind of person gives all their time to _____ and not _____.
12. The sluggard spends their days craving things they _____ don't really want.
13. Our _____ must match our _____.
14. In contrast, the _____ are generous, meaning that their _____ has put them in position to bless others.
15. Also, their attitude is geared towards meeting the needs of _____ and not their _____ desires.
16. To be generous requires _____ and _____.
17. Death is the _____ of a _____ to work for what you want.

