

Text: Joshua 1:1-11

1. The _____ of Moses is a significant point of suffering in the life of this moving people.
2. Moses led as if he would _____ the Promised Land with them, but God had other plans. To be sure: God's plans for Moses did not change his plans for the _____.
3. The calling of Joshua is not a matter of entering _____ work, but _____ them into new territory.  He's not new to leadership. Joshua just new to the area.
4. When people die, the Lord calls others to _____ _____. God honors _____.
5. We should always be _____ people to take our place to prevent _____ when we can no longer continue.
6. Succession is a _____ of opportunity, discipleship, and faithfulness. Nevertheless, succession is _____ by willingness, an answer to the Lord's command.
7. The death of a leader should never _____ the goal, vision, or plan.
8. Joshua needed to be _____ before he was called to _____.
9. God's faithfulness does not _____ with a man.
10. Moses may have spoken and participated in the promises, but God _____ out the promise.
11. God encourages Joshua to _____ his own words from when He wasn't the leader as he steps into leadership. (Numbers 14:6-9)
12. The _____ _____ is the _____ way. Joshua now has to lead the people the long way because they embraced the bad report from years before.

13. Joshua says, “Don’t get comfortable here. We’re _____ somewhere.”

14. Someone has to step up and _____.

15. Someone has to _____ the _____ left by others.

16. The _____ must continue.

17. We cannot _____.